OFFICIAL PROGRAMME 15p

Pictured above talking to one of our oldest supporters George Broderick (left) is Alec Chaplin who played for Fulham in 1919 for many years and was a full-back of great repute. At 86 Alec is the ideal man to assist the Club in the compilation of our history of Fulham which we intend to produce for our centenary year. If you have any press cuttings, old programmes, photographs or indeed any memories of Fulham's very earliest days then Club Secretary George Noyce would be pleased to hear from you.

Score for yourself at Skillcentre

Train for a skill in engineering and earn as you learn.

Your local Skillcentre at Perivale, Twickenham and Waddon offer a wide variety of courses in engineering skills. Most of them last six months; practical training and friendly instructors make for quick progress.

Tuition is free – and you get a TOPS training allowance – enough to keep you at a reasonable standard of living, throughout the course.

Courses are open to both men and women. You don't need CSE or 'O' levels. But you must be over 19, and have been away from full-time education for at least three years.

If you're out of work, or stuck in a dead-end job, here's your chance to score.

Cottage Comment

It is not just winning, drawing or losing that is important in the short term. It is the manner in which these results are obtained. How the team plays as a whole, as individuals, and the character which shines through that is important and can give that vital clue to the future. These then were the feelings here at the Cottage after winning so admirably against Hull City and after Southampton last week.

We have a young side, average age 21½ and several of the youngsters who deservedly had won praise individually in these columns, and in the Press, have now played two storming games which reveal that their obvious potential is now growing as they are becoming regular first team members. In our match against Hull City — not normally one of the 'matches of the season' at Fulham — when we might easily have scored many more goals. It was just the same at the Dell as those of you who came to Southampton will know.

We now firmly believe that the results will soon start to come. On this basis we should see an excellent game this afternoon against Bolton Wanderers, a team we played five times last season without winning. A team which is top of Division Two and on top of its form. Yet soccer has some strange twists of fortune and so we feel, based on the potential now showing through, that against all so-called informed opinion, we may gain two points here today.

We were all sad to say 'au revoir' to Ted Maybank last week. And of course he will always be welcome here at Fulham. There is no need to spell out why he left us. Survival is the name of the game with such low attendances here. Our sacrifice is in the overall long term interests of the Club and we are sure you will all agree that the Club has to come first. In the midst of all the disappointment which we all inevitably feel when a star player goes, one or two facts must be borne in mind. Over the past 12 months we have reduced the wage bill by £115,000 and in receipts for players sold we have received £285,000.

The average age of our first team at Southampton was 21½ whereas two years ago the average age was 26½. We have eight youngsters who have represented their country at some level or other, which is a great encouragement for the future.

The average age of our reserve side last Saturday was 17½. Our policy is on youth because that is the only way forward for Fulham. We have heard from the press that there were people who were ready to swoop in with injunctions and injections of cash. We know you may be getting bored with all the talk of who is going to do what but we have felt at the Cottage for some while that if there are people with pots of money then they need not be shy to come forward.

Last Monday evening Tony Gale, Perry Digweed, Mark Lovell and Tony Mahoney were in the FA Youth XI who played a Norweigan Youth XI here at Craven Cottage. We saw a thrilling match against a side which has already reached the finals of the 'Little World Cup' to be held in Poland next year. We were proud to have this match played at Craven Cottage and for our young lads to have an opportunity of gaining experience and recognition at this level. Coincidentally, two former Fulham players have already captained the F.A. Youth XI: Johnny Haynes and Barry Lloyd. So Tony as England skipper chalks up yet another milestone during his career at Craven Cottage.

Young Colin McCurdy made his debut for us at Southampton last Saturday acclimatising himself well to the pace of his first ever League game, and he was unlucky not to score two goals in the first half. Today we welcome another youngster to our ranks the 21 year-old captain of Scunthorpe United, Richard Money, who signed for us last Monday. If he does half so well at a higher level as that other Scunthorpe Old Boy, Kevin Keegan, the Manager will be well pleased.

BOLTON WANDERERS

JIM McDONAGH — Goalkeeper. Jim joined the Wanderers at the start of last season on a month's loan from Rotherham United. Impressed and was signed for a £10,000 fee as cover for Barry Siddall. He soon got promotion with the transfer of Siddall to Sunderland and held the first team spot for the remainder of the season. Jim stands 6ft tall and matches his height with agility.

TERRY POOLE — Goalkeeper. Signed from Huddersfield Town last season for a £25,000 fee. Had still to make his first team debut at the start of the current season for the Wanderers.

JOHN RITSON — Full-Back. John was born in Liverpool and joined the Wanderers from schoolboy soccer. He graduated through the junior sides and is now a strong defender with an attacking flair. Missed a spell of last season due to a cartilage operation.

TONY DUNNE — Full-Back. Eire International who played for most of his career with Manchester United. Was a member of the United European Cup winning side and since coming to Bolton has proved to be a favourite with the fans.

PETER NICHOLSON — Defender. Signed for the Wanderers from Blackpool for a small fee prior to the 1971-2 season and has proved to be a fantastic bargain. He can play anywhere in defence and had a long spell at full back last season. Is also accomplished in midfield.

ROY GREAVES — Midfield. Long-serving player who had a recent testimonial. Born in Farnworth, near Bolton, he is a non-stop worker whose workrate has to be seen to be believed.

PAUL JONES — Defender. Paul is a central defender who has been a member of the Under-23 and full England squads. He is a commanding player in the air as well as on the ground and seems destined for further honours.

SAM ALLARDYCE — Defender. A young central defender born in the Midlands, Sam joined the Wanderers from school and since coming into the side in 1975 has held down a regular place.

WILLIE MORGAN — Winger. Started his career with Burnley then moved to Manchester United for a big fee. Returned to Burnley and was signed by the Wanderers two seasons ago. A Scottish international and member of the last World Cup Squad, Willie spent last summer playing in American football.

NEIL WHATMORE — Striker. Strong attacker with a flair for scoring goals. He scored 31 times last season to top the Second Division scoring chart for League and League Cup goals.

PETER REID — Midfield. Another youngster who joined Bolton from school on Merseyside. Peter played for England's Under 21 side last season and went on the close-season tour of Scandinavia with the national side. Is a constructive player who reads the game well and is a fine passer of the ball.

PETER THOMPSON — Winger. Peter is the former Liverpool and England player who has won most of the honours in the game. A very tricky player, his class has made him a firm favourite with the supporters.

RAY TRAIN — Midfield. Signed for the Wanderers only minutes before the transfer deadline last season for a £30,000 fee from Sunderland. Has a terrier-like tackle and is always in the thick of the midfield action.

ANDY CLEMENTS — Defender. Andy made his debut for the Wanderers in the pre-season Anglo-Scottish Cup games. Joined the club as a schoolboy but has never really settled down in one position. Can play as a back four man or in midfield — and has had several games as a striker.

GARRY JONES — Striker. Born in Manchester, Garry is a strong running attacking player. He can put pressure on defenders and once he gains more consistency seems certain to be a regular goalscorer.

BRIAN SMITH — Midfield. Born in Walkden, near Manchester, Brian is a small but very active player who has impressed when used in midfield. His chances have been limited by the form of Peter Reid and the signing of Ray Train.

ALAN WALDRON — Midfield. Another player who joined Bolton from school. Has recovered well from a bad ankle injury, but has been unable to regain a regular first team spot. He had a spell in America prior to last season.

FRANK WORTHINGTON — Striker. Bolton's record signing from Leicester City for a £90,000 fee in October.

MIKE WALSH — Defender. Manchester-born Mike joined the Wanderers from school. He is being groomed for a place in the side, but has had to be content with being stand-in for any of the defensive positions. Seems certain to win a regular place soon.

FRANK WORTHINGTON

There were more than a few raised eyebrows in the football world at the start of this season when Leicester City agreed to loan Frank Worthington to Second Division Bolton.

For Worthington was the Filbert Street club's leading goal-scorer with 14 League goals to his credit the previous term and, many thought, an integral part of the Leicester set-up.

But Worthington has responded to the challenge of Second Division football in the best possible spirit — to such an extent that his transfer to Burnden Park became permanent.

He has the happy knack of creating goals from half-chances, and his control of the ball and passing ability have added a new dimension to Bolton's strike force.

Worthington began his football League career at Huddersfield Town, making 166 appearances for the Terriers and scoring 42 times before moving on to Leicester the year after Huddersfield were relegated from the top flight. At Leicester, his goal-scoring feats continued, with 71 goals in just over 200 appearances.

Frank has eight England caps. He played against Northern Ireland, Scotland, Argentina, East Germany, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Portugal in a spell between 1974-75. He has scored twice at International level.

And who's to say that if his present form with Bolton continues, he won't be wearing an England shirt again before too long.

It was a proud achievement for Fulham to have four players in the Youth international against Norway at Craven Cottage on Monday — and for the men behind the scenes who discover, sign and groom youngsters like these. It was a 0-0 draw but the boys only came together on the morning of the match and Norway are a well-organised outfit who have qualified for next year's Little World Cup in Poland.

Our four were: Tony Gale who was 18 a week ago. He captained the F.A. Youth team, has won three Youth caps, had three games for our senior side when 16 and is a regular member of the League team. He has played ten times as sweeper and five times in midfield. When I'm asked which is his best position I reply "He's a footballer — he can play anywhere. He is capable of doing the right thing at the right time, wherever he is playing."

Tony Mahoney has been with us since 13 — as was Tony Gale — and comes from Dagenham. He also made his debut in the first team when 16 and now has considerable League experience. He is a striker, particularly good in the air.

Mark Lovell signed as an apprentice this year and was taken from under the noses of QPR, because he comes from the flats 150 yards from the main entrance at Shepherd's Bush. He is an anchor man in midfield and now a regular member of the Combination side.

Perry Digweed played against Bolton last season when three senior goalkeepers — Gerry Peyton, Peter Mellor and Richard Teale — were injured, and did remarkably well. He was then 16.

Gale played all the match against Norway, Mahoney the first half and the other two came on after the interval.

Those are the men you see in action, whom you hear about and whose names appear in newspapers. What about the men behind the scenes who do the donkey work and without whom the youngsters would not flourish? They spend hours, often in cold and miserable conditions, looking for players of promise. They approach parents and schoolteachers, using patience and tact in bringing the boys to us. They help me in coaching so as to foster their development.

Chief scout is Ted Drake, and he really needs no introduction. As a player he was centre-forward for England and Arsenal and still holds the First Division individual scoring record with seven goals against Aston Villa in 1935. He used to manage Chelsea, taking them to the First Division Championship, and has been with us six years. What better P.R.O. could we have in dealing with parents?

Gordon Clark formerly managed Sheffield Wednesday, West Bromwich and Peterborough. He had ten years with Arsenal and helped to bring to them Liam Brady, David O'Leary, Frank Stapleton, Trevor Ross, Ray Kennedy and Graham Rix. What better pedigree could you have? Ask him about any player in the League and he will know his ability. He is an encyclopaedia of footballers.

Ken Craggs assists me with coaching and has been with the club 20 years. At Fulham I have the same method I used successfully with Arsenal and QPR of coaching the seniors and youth players together. It gives the youngsters encouragement and self-confidence. Ken also takes charge in Combination matches.

Last Saturday Ken had no fewer than 10 of the Youth side in the reserves and yet they managed to draw with Crystal Palace. Two other Youth players were in the League team and we had to send a very raw outfit to Southend for the South East Counties match. Yet we maintain a challenging position in the South East Counties League!

Although we are facing immediate difficulties at Fulham I am convinced that the future of the club has never been healthier. And that is why I am grateful to have around me men of the calibre of Ted Drake, Gordon Clark and Ken Craggs.

Reserve Review

PLYMOUTH 1 FULHAM 1
CRYSTAL PALACE 0 FULHAM 0

Two hard-earned draws against vastly more experienced sides have kept our youngsters in the race for Combination honours. Newcomer Colin McCurdy showed his sharpness round the net with our goal at Plymouth and it was our defence which took the honours in the goal-less draw with Crystal Palace. Perry Digweed had a fine game in goal with Tyrone James and Nigel Westwood forming a strong central defence. A Palace attack including Jeff Bourne and Rachid Harkouk were well contained and Mark Lovell showed what a fine constructive midfield player he is becoming. We had only two players Dennis Byatt and Tyrone in the side who were ineligible for the Youth Cup match at Selhurst Park next Tuesday, 6th December (K.O. 7.30 p.m.).

Team v Plymouth: Digweed, Byatt, Mason, Lovell, James, Durcan, Evans, Kerslake, McCurdy, Mahoney, Day, O'Doherty (Sub).

Team v Crystal Palace: Digweed, Byatt, Mason, Lovell, James, Westwood, Gibson, O'Doherty, Mahoney, Evans, Day, Wilson (Sub).

To keep you up-to-date with one or two changes in fixtures please note that for the first team we kick off against Oldham Athletic on Friday 30th December and not Saturday, k.o. 7.30; and Luton Town will now be on Friday 10th March, k.o. 7.30.

In the reserve team fixture list we have changed our December 6th away match with Bristol City to January 31st in order that we are at full strength for our F.A. Youth Cup battle with last year's winners Crystal Palace that night at 7.30. At Selhurst Park.

We would confirm, despite newspaper reports to the contrary, that our match with Stoke City on December 17th is not changed.

BRISTOL CITY 1 FULHAM 2 Southern Junior Floodlight Cup

In a match which did great credit to both sides, we fought back from the brink of defeat to a victory which had the 50 Fulham supporters present singing "You'll never walk alone". Tony Rains received an ankle injury inside the first 10 minutes and was replaced by Nigel Westwood, who did a grand job alongside Tony Gale. Both keepers made fine saves in the first half to keep the scoresheet blank but just before the interval a great shot from City's mobile striker Mark Payne was parried by Perry Digweed only for the force of the shot to carry it over the line.

Tony Gale headed a Brian Gibson corner inches over and after David Magg had made a great save from Tony Mahoney, Tony Gale's header looked a certainty before the City keeper again reached it at full stretch. Declan O'Doherty, who sub-bed for the injured Brian Corner, hit a 30 yarder just wide but Peter Hayes was only inches wide as Perry went out to narrow the angle. A clever left-wing move put Clive Day away but the keeper held his cross. With only a minute left, and all our players up, the speedy Hayes broke through for City but shot inches wide. In injury time, Tony Mahoney made space to slam a Brian Gibson corner low past the brilliant Magg. Declan and Mark Lovell won control in midfield during extra time and a clever right-wing move saw the ball come out for Clive Day to hit a rasping drive past Magg. Bristol came close to forcing a replay when Payne beat Tony Gale in a great run but fired past the post.

In the third round, we have been drawn away to the winners of Oxford United v Derby County.

Team: Digweed, Wilson, Gale, Rains (Westwood 14), Mason: Corner (O'Doherty 62), Lovell, Day: Gibson, Mahoney, Evans.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR RIVERSIDE CHAIRMAN TOM TONKIN

Anyone who went along to the greyhound racing night at the Riverside Suite last Tuesday week will know that things are really beginning to happen for the Riversiders — that convivial band of Fulham supporters who watch home games from commanding and comfortable seats in the Eric Miller Stand. Of course greyhound racing at Craven Cottage on debut night was nothing like the dogs at White City. For a start the races were on film and punters, sitting in the comfort of the Riverside Suite, could sup a pint while studying the form of the runners. Then there was the opportunity to sponsor dogs as well as bet on them, giving the Riversiders the chance to collect their winnings and a sponsor's prize into the bargain! There will be another racing night before Christmas 20th December when punters will be invited to try their luck on the Dogs. It is all part of a fund raising exercise for Fulham

F.C., and the formation of the Riversiders Social Club which will be organising racing nights and novelty dances on a monthly basis.

If you do not belong to the Riversiders already, Chairman, Tom Tonkin says, "now is the time to join". There still are 49 seats available in the Riverside Stand. Take one on a season ticket basis (£65. for the remainder of the season) and you'll be entitled to a free programme, free half-time refreshments in the Riverside restaurant and a guaranteed seat for cup and friendly matches at no extra charge.

The restaurant, which is open for pre-match lunches, and the bar with its colour T.V., offer excellent facilities for entertaining. At the end of the match there is always the opportunity to have a drink with the players.

Couple all this with telephone facilities and it is easy to see that the Riversiders is an ideal club for business executives.

Ken Coton's PICTURE ROUND-UP

Very nearly the goal of the season, but John Margerrison's tremendous shot from over 30 yards against Hull, left, rebounded off the bar. Centre left: This was a goal against Hull — a swerving shot from Tony Gale.

FULHAM 2 v BOLTON 0

January 28th, 1911

The country was in a state of unrest when Bolton made their second visit to the Cottage in January 1911. The Houses of Commons and Lords were locked in bitter conflict, the suffragettes campaign was at its height, industrial trouble was brewing and the Irish problem was once again looming large. During January, the sensational 'Siege of Sydney Street' occupied the headlines along with the launching of the first Dreadnought and a pit disaster at Hulton which killed 344 miners.

Bolton came to the Cottage with a reputation of being a 'yo-yo' team. They had been relegated from Division One four times, in 1898-99, 1902-3, 1907-8 and 1909-10, and had won their place back three times, in 1899-1900, 1904-5 and 1908-9. Thus, in January 1911, the Trotters were challenging for promotion for the fourth time in 12 years. Bolton finished the season in second position with 51 points, two fewer than champions West Brom.

The Club's fluctuating fortunes had imposed a great strain on its finances. Consequently, the promotion winning team cost a mere £400, with goalkeeper Edmondson, at £250, the most expensive player. Stott and Baverstock were the full-backs and the half-back line was drawn from Feebary, Whiteside, Greenhalgh or Marsh. Stokes, Hutton and Barber or Hughes wore the 7, 8 and 9 shirts, but the stars of the side were the left wing duo of Joe Smith and Ted Vizard. Smith, an English International, captained Bolton for 17 of his 19 seasons, including the two cup winning teams of 1923 and 1926, and scored over 300 League goals. He subsequently managed Blackpool from 1935-58 and his greatest triumph was Blackpool's dramatic Cup Final victory in 1953 — over Bolton. Vizard was a Welsh International who also played in the 1923 and 1926 Finals and later managed Wolves and Q.P.R.

The 1910-11 season, Phil Kelso's second as Fulham's manager, was rather undistinguished. We finished in 10th position, with 37 points from 38 games, and were knocked out in the first round of the Cup, by West Brom. The regular line-up was Reynolds, Charlton, Sharp, Collins, Mavin, Suart, Smith, White, Harrison or Burns, Brown and Walker. Smith was topscorer with 11 goals, followed by centre half Mavin with 10, five of which were penalties, and Harrison who scored nine times. The best result was a 6-2 home win over Stockport in March 1911, with Burns scoring our only hat-trick of the season.

During the season a number of players came into the side who were to be regulars for many years. Arthur Reynolds had replaced Leslie Skene in goal for the last two matches of 1909-10; he went on to make almost 100 consecutive appearances, and was a regular until he moved to Orient in 1925. White, who replaced Dalrymple at inside right, and Walker, who took over the left wing spot from Lipsham, both held their places until after the 1914-18 war. Finally, in the 0-2 defeat by Bolton at Burnden Park in September 1911, Jimmy Torrance, one of Fulham's best ever servants, made his debut. He only made 12 appearances in 1910-11 but soon established himself as a key member of the team until 1925-26.

MAVIN THE MARKSMAN

Bolton Wanderers can hardly have realised the form at Fulham which has carried them to the top of the League. Except in certain minor points they could claim no superiority over Fulham, a team very moderately placed, and in defensive work generally the home players were superior. The match was very evenly fought, and all the scoring, as well as most of the thrills, took place in the last fifteen minutes.

James Smith tried to place the ball out of Edmondson's reach, but the goalkeeper made a fine effort and just turned it round the post. After the corner Baverstock certainly appeared to handle the ball, but after a consultation with the linesman Fulham's confident appeal was negated. However, soon afterwards James Smith forced a corner, and placed it so accurately that HARRISON easily headed a goal.

The Wanderers made a splendid effort to equalise, and Reynolds somehow juggled the ball away from their forwards, who were not more than two yards from the goal line. Back raced Fulham's forwards, only to be intercepted. But MAVIN, meeting the ball behind the discomfited attackers, drove it from more than 30 yards' range past Edmondson's outstretched hand and into the net. It was a magnificent shot — one of the sort that a goalkeeper oftener than not turns over the bar, but which occasionally, by their suddenness or force, evade his vigilance, as in this case.

JAMES SMITH'S REAL FORM

Edmondson was more busily employed than Reynolds, and his work was well done, though nothing he did was quite so sensational as Reynolds's save referred to above. Baverstock placed into touch whenever James Smith was near. Perhaps it paid. Greenhalgh played a sound game, though he was hardly as dominating as he has been in London. Whiteside was the best Bolton half.

Stokes, a rare favourite with London crowds, did much dainty work and shared with Hilton and Smith the honours of the Bolton attack. Hughes was out of touch with the game, and he found Mavin a great obstacle. Redwood, playing in lieu of the injured Sharp, made a few slips, but proved quite a capable back, while Charlton was in his best mood.

Collins played a rare game, and Suart rose superior to a damaged leg. James Smith found his form again, and his knack of going forward with the ball made him a more dangerous player than Stokes. White played well against his old colleagues, and Burns compared with his last season's form, is a much-improved footballer, who on Saturday added playing strength as well as weight to the attack.

There were upwards of 20,000 spectators, and although there was fog not far away the sun shone throughout the game.

Fulham: Reynolds, Charlton, Redwood, Collins, Marvin, Suart, Smith (James), White, Burns, Harrison and Mouncher. Article from ATHLETIC NEWS January 30th 1911.

LADIES EVENING — COTTAGE LOAFERS

Please note our new name — Cottage Loafers — We enjoyed a good evening last week where we were able to raise £15 at our Stella Ware Party. It was nice to see so many of you come along. Also it was great to see the husbands come for a drink at the bar, while their wives spent all of their money. Why not bring your husband next time.

Next Loafing evening 22nd December. — Carol Singing!

FULHAM ST ANDREWS FOOTBALL CLUB

On Tuesday 22nd November, 1977 the Fulham St. Andrews Football Club was officially formed at a general meeting. It was agreed among other things that we would make an application to join the West Fulham League (Season 1978/79), we would probably play in the Roehampton Vale/New Malden area and of course our colours would be none other than black and white.

We have obtained training premises in Wimbledon on Tuesday nights, and we agreed that for this season where it was not possible to arrange a friendly match, that we train at Wandsworth Park (Putney Bridge Road) on Sunday mornings.

As always we are looking for keen players to join us. If you are interested, either go along to the Benfica Bar or ring 874-8375 (Peter Smith).
